CHIEF CLERK'S OFFICE

CASE NO. 02-0329

MOTION TO DISMISS CITATION

NOW COMES SOUTHWEST COMMUNICATIONS, INC. ("Southwest") through undersigned counsel and in support of its Motion to Dismiss the Citation states the following:

1) Southwest was notified by the Illinois Commerce Commission ("Commission") that its Certificate of Convenience and Necessity to operate as an interexchange carrier in Illinois was subject to revocation on May 28, 2002, for failure to maintain its corporate status with the Secretary.

2) On or about May 24, 2002, Southwest filed its first Motion for Continuance in order to allow a sufficient period of time for Southwest to correct its corporate status. On June 28, 2002, Southwest filed an additional Motion for Continuance due to delays being experienced by the Illinois Secretary fo State in processing Southwest's reinstatement documents.

3) The Illinois Secretary of State has processed and accepted the reinstatement of Southwest's corporate status, as evidenced by the Certificate of Good Standing and Reinstatement attached.

4) As a result of the reinstatement of Southwest's corporate status, all outstanding issues relative to the Citation have been addressed.

WHEREFORE, for the above referenced reasons, Southwest prays that the Citation
Order be dismissed.

Respectfully submitted,
